COLD STORAGE

East Fla. Ice Mfg. Co.,
Simon Benjamin, Manager.

Never let us be discouraged with ourselves. It is not when we are conscious of our faults that we are most wicked; on the contrary, we are less so. We see by a brighter light, and let us remember, for our consolation, that we never perceive our sins till we begin to cure them.—Fenelon.

While the truth is always to be spoken, if anything is said, it is not always necessary to say anything. We may feel very keenly about certain matters, and be thoroughly convinced that our view is the correct one, and yet have regard to timeliness and the feelings of others in the expression of our opinions. It may not be cowardice, at all, but simply the self-restraint which comes from a wise judgment of opportunities and conditions, or a regard for others, that seals the lips. In household life one has frequent occasions to act on this principle. The inopportune declaration of what you think or know may alienate the closest friends, and sow discords never to be uprooted. It is no defence whatever to say that you spoke what you thought, or that what you said was true. Neither the law of frankness nor veracity puts you under any obligation to outrage others' feelings.

Mrs. Amy Swarts and Family.

SPRING PARK

There was a good attendance at Sunday school and church last Sabbath and it was decided to have a Christmas tree and entertainment at the church this year, and we should all be glad, as there has been none for the past two or three years.

The mercury was down to 38 degrees the morning of the 10th, and the frost nipped tender vegetables and plants.

The social and dance at the L. V. I. S. hall the evening of the 8th was well attended by the young people from Anthony, Ocala, Silver Springs and Grahamville, with a good turnout of our Park people. The evening was perfect, with the moon at its full, the company orderly and yet replete with life and animation, and as the doors closed at midnight and the members of the crowd separated to go their respective ways, all pronounced this, the first gathering of the season, a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. Alex Peterson has the thanks of the writer for a quarter of very fine kid and a big parcel of greens.

Hon. J. C. French and wife and Mrs. M. E. Sears arrived from the North Tuesday afternoon and seem glad to be in the sunny South once more.
